

Curriculum Vitae

Name: Prof. Dr. Volker Grabowsky

Date of Birth: 24 March 1959

Personal employment and academic education:

- | | |
|--------------------|--|
| Since 2009 | Professor of Language and Culture of Thailand (Thai Studies), University of Hamburg |
| 1999–2009 | Professor of the History of Southeast Asia at the Westfälische-Wilhelms University of Münster |
| 1996–1999 | Visiting Professor of “Traditional Lao Literature” at the Department of Lao Language and Literature, National University of Laos, Vientiane, under the German Academic Exchange Service (DAAD) |
| 4/ 1994 – 7/ 1996 | Assistant Professor (Wissenschaftliche Assistent) at the Department of Thai and Vietnamese Studies, Seminar of Language and Culture of China, University of Hamburg |
| 8/ 1990 – 3 / 1994 | Assistant Professor (Wissenschaftliche Assistent) of Southeast Asian Studies, University of Passau |
| 1996 | Habilitation in History and Cultures of Southeast Asia at the Asia-Africa-Institute, University of Hamburg |
| 1986 | PhD in History at the Christian-Albrechts-Universität Kiel |
| 1977–1983 | Study of History and Mathematics at the Christian-Albrechts-Universität Kiel (Höheres Lehramt) |

Honors, Distinctions, Scholarships and Awards:

- | | |
|-----------|--|
| 1984–1986 | PhD scholarship of the Land Schleswig-Holstein |
|-----------|--|

Supervisory works:

- | | |
|------------|---|
| Since 1999 | 8 PhD students (accomplished), 10 PhD students (currently supervised), 21 Magister/Master students (accomplished) |
|------------|---|

Selected professional memberships and activities:

- | | |
|------------|---|
| Since 2002 | Deutsche Morgenländische Gesellschaft |
| Since 1995 | European Association of Southeast Asian Studies |
| Since 1993 | Siam Society (Bangkok) |
| Since 1987 | Deutsche Gesellschaft für Asienkunde |

Selected research topics and accomplishments:

Thai and Lao history, Lao Buddhism, Tai manuscript cultures, projects on the digitization of Lao manuscripts (EAP grants)